(Per Steamer North Pacific.)
Col. Albert Barker of Georgia, editor of the Macon "Telegraph," tells how his state came to secede. It was all brought about by a glass of brandy. When the secession convention met at Milledgeville the state was divided on the war question, and Herschel V. Johnson, who ran for vice-president on the Douglas ticket, was fighting hard to keep Georgia in the Union. He was the best talker in the state and began a speech at the convention which was rapidly swinging the delegates over to his side. But Tombs, Cobb & Co., fearing defeat, secured a recess with the understanding that Johnson should continue his address afterward. Then Lamar mixed a stiff drink of brandy toddy and persuaded Johnson to drink, and when he resumed his speech his brain was so fuddled that he couldn't think, his tongue refused to do its work, the convention laughed him and the secessionists won the day.

"Yes," said the marketman, "plenty of game on hand. What'll you have?" And the gentleman replied: "Oh, I don't wish to purchase any now. I don't know as I shall want any at all. But I expect to go hunting this afternoon, and I just thought I'd make sure there was some in the market, in case I didn't kill any."

A farmer of Augusta, Va., became so carried away with the idea that on his farm were hid immense deposits of fertilizers, minerals and precious ores that his mind was unsettled, and he was taken to the lunatic asylum a raving maniac.

Senator Sawyer is one of the most practical of rich men. He called his young daughters to him one day and asked them, as a testimony of their affection for him, to learn to make their own clothes and to cook a good dinner. The young girls cheerfully promised, and not long after invited their parents and a few friends to dine with them. They cooked a perfect dinner themselves, and each wore a dainty gown made by their own hands. So pleased was the Senator that he gave to each of them a check for $25,000.

THE ISLAND RAILWAY.

We recur to this important subject to urge upon the members of the House the necessity of stipulating that unimpeachable security shall be given by any company that may ask a charter for the construction of this important link in overland railway construction. A charter, when granted, should be so hedged with safeguards as to render the miscarriage of the scheme, except at a serious loss to the projectors, next to impossible. Besides seeing that the security is ample and good, there is another important duty which cannot be overlooked with safety: The security should be within reach of the province; should be where the hands of the government may be placed upon it in case of the default of the contracting parties. The deposit of bonds or money in a San Francisco bank to the credit of the receiver-general of Canada is, we submit, not satisfactory. In arranging the details complications may arise between the provincial government and the railway company on the one hand and the Dominion government on the other; and in that case the latter might refuse to part with any other security which may be deposited at San Francisco to the credit of the receiver-general. The proper, and, as it seems to us, the only security the House can accept with confidence should be placed to the credit of the provincial government at some bank in this city before the charter is granted. Unless this safeguard is provided what guarantee will the House have that their legislation may not prove abortive and that a delay of another year may not take place as a result of a too generous confidence in telegraphic promises. So far as the CLEMENTS scheme is understood here, it would appear to be advantageous to the province. The company offer to construct a line of road to Seymour Narrows and begin work on the 1st of July of the present year. But suppose that after having secured the charter they did not begin work this year—what then? Is the House willing to face such a contingency without imposing a forfeit which must be put up before the bill is finally passed? We think not. Let the CLEMENTS Syndicate come down with the security and they need be under no apprehension of their bill not passing.

THE DRYDOCK.

Mr. FERGUSON has placed on the notice board a motion which has for its object the reopening of negotiations with the Imperial Government for taking over the drydock. This, we submit, is one of the most important notices of the session. The drydock committee's report shows conclusively that the work is one with which the province cannot grapple with any success. The government have so "mixed and muddled" the matter and by their stupidity and ignorance have so increased the probable cost, that the task has become a most difficult one for the province. It can never hope to finish the dock, the cost of which a low estimate now places at $1,000,000. The only chance left for the House is to go back to the policy of the ELLIOTT government and offer the work to the Imperial Government—to ask Great Britain to finish it for us. Four years ago the Imperial authorities were on the point of taking over the work, but in an evil moment the existing government withdrew the offer and made a bargain with Canada by the terms of which the Ottawa authorities may at short notice take possession of the dock and finish it at provincial expense. By the terms of that bargain the right of the province to further control of dock work is already forfeited. At any moment the Dominion may step in and assert a proprietorship. This is known to the government and to the House, and the necessity for prompt action is therefore apparent. Mr. FERGUSON's resolution comes just in the nick of time. The government, of course, will resist the motion on the pretence that they do not wish to copy any portion of the policy of the ELLIOTT government, however good it may be. But have they not adopted the fiscal policy of that government, and are they not keeping themselves afloat by its means? Mr. WALKER and his crowd had better consent to eat humble pie. They can thereby save the country at least $500,000.

THE BLUE SHIRTS OF CARIBOO.

The premier's attack on the junior member for Cariboo is likely to rebound to the attacker's discomfiture. "I have gummed in my scrap-book," said the premier, "two amendments to the mining bill prepared by the honorable gentleman and I intend to use them in the next election canvass to show the miners of Cariboo how little the member knows about constitutional law." In other words, Mr. WALKER threatens to show the miners of Cariboo that one of themselves is unfit to represent them because he drew up an amendment which was not in accordance with constitutional law; that because he did not have the advantage of an early education his humble but not the less practical efforts to reform the horrid hot-potch known as the mining bill at which the premier has been tinkering for ten years without producing a perfect measure, are not entitled to consideration. Mr. FERGUSON is not a pretentious man, but he is a very remarkable one. At ten years of age he went to work in a coal mine, and until he was 16 years of age he could neither read nor write. Self-taught, hard working and reliable, he was elected by his fellow-miners to represent them in the House; and when Mr. WALKER slurs Mr. FERGUSON because he did not have the advantage of an early education he casts a reflection on all "blue shirted miners" whom he affects so much to admire. Mr. WALKER had early educational advantages; but even that fact has not prevented him being led up before the Dominion by high judicial authority as knowing nothing of constitutional law. It is safe to say that had he been born a coal-miner he would have always remained one. Said the Western Judge to the Irishman, "Paddy, you'd have been a long time in Ireland before you'd have slept with a Judge." Whereupon Pat retorted, "Faith an' you'd have been a long time in Ireland before you'd have been a judge."

The Island Railway.

To THE EDITOR:—"Coming events cast their shadows before," is an old proverb the verity of which will be manifest ere long in this province. In a former letter I expressed a fear that if the railway reserve on the Island extended beyond Nanaimo it would give power to a company (if so inclined) to construct a line across the island to the Alberni canal which, in all probability, would deprive Victoria of the through traffic of the Canadian Pacific Railway. In one of the private bills on this subject now before the legislature I observe that there is a clause to this effect, "that the company shall have the power to construct a line to a point on the West coast." This, to me, confirms the impression that at some future date they contemplate building this branch line and by that means have sole control of the railway system as far as we are concerned. I therefore venture again to direct the attention of Victorians to this fact for I am still under the impression that either of the railway schemes portend evil to the future of Vancouver Island. It is for the public to say whether it will not be advisable to reject both these bills as they now stand or at least to have them so amended as to insure future prosperity to this community.

There is also another clause to which it will not be unwise to draw attention. Why, is the Sogahish reserve, Victoria west, chosen as the terminus of the Esquimalt-Victoria railway as it necessitates the construction of a bridge across the harbor to connect it with Victoria proper. Why not adopt the line surveyed by Mr. Gastineau some years since as it has many advantages over the line suggested by the company. The line this engineer adopted was across the Victoria arm at or near the first narrows and clear of the harbor altogether and terminating at Rock Bay at a point on the wharf level of the waterfronts so that tramways could be constructed and the cars deliver or receive their freight to or from the railway without handling while the new line presents a great impediment and obstruction to the harbour by a bridge and confers no public benefit whatever. It would be as well to discuss the railway question at a public meeting as Victoria is vitally concerned in the matter and unless we are to derive benefit from it, it would be better to defer its construction until means can be adopted to give us acceptable terms.

How to get Rid of Moths.

Send clothes to be dyed at the dye works. Clothing of all kinds should be sent to be steam cleaned before it is put away so as to preserve it from moths. If you have any clothing that is of no use to you send word to the dyer and he will buy every description, including boots, shoes and hats. Kid gloves cleaned.

The poet Oscar Wilde. The name proclaims the man. In innocence a child; One of the aesthetic clan. Too practical by half are we, Twist fiddlehead and fiddledele, To see the poetry.

It is not wild in us to assert that the beautiful Easter Cards just received are far more elevated in sentiment and poetry.

The Elder's Passengers.

(Special Dispatch to The Colonist.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.
Steamship Geo. W. Elder, sailed at 2 p. m. for Victoria, with the following passengers:—J. W. Heckman, P. Osting and wife, E. O. Wheeler, Miss G. Montano, E. Johnson, J. Mitchell, A. B. Rogers, J. J. Ballantine, John B. Lovell, J. E. Grant, Mrs. Geo. Gillespie, Paul Hanneston, Mrs. E. Redgrave, O. Harrison, A. Baker and wife, J. S. Allen, J. B. Lush, R. Rowan, A. Cowan, P. Winer, J. A. Lockhart, Loo Chew Fan, J. Young.

Dredging.

Harbor deepening operations are steadily progressing along the water front of the city. Capt. Dexter is busily engaged opposite Messrs. Turner & Denton's new wharf where he is taking out between 7 and 8 feet of black mud, the deposition of ages. When the dredging is completed there will be a uniform depth of 25 feet at high and 14 feet at low water in front of all the wharves; and this depth will be secured to about 100 feet in the stream. Clay has not been brought up anywhere except at the custom house where several feet of it was raised in order to give deep water at the end of the contemplated new wharf. This clay was so tenacious that sometimes the buckets would not empty and they had often to be dug out. Since leaving the custom house, however, the excavating has been very easy. A few days ago a condemned ship's pump was fished up, fortunately without injury to the dredger; but a serious mishap might easily have occurred by the buckets becoming entangled in such a mass of old iron and wood. The punts hold about 20 cubic yards of stuff which is taken outside the harbor and dumped in not less than 30 fathoms of water. Only about seven trips per day are made and the distance to be traversed by the steamer causes considerable loss of time on board the dredger waiting for punts. Three such steamers would be kept busy or one with three times the speed and power of the Georgia conveying away the dirt which might be brought up. As it is punts are filled before the loaded ones get out of the harbor.

The first spring trade sale will be held this morning at the salesroom of J. P. Davies, and comprises liquors, oilmen's stores, paints, pipes, crockery, pipes, Canada plates, etc.

For YALE.—Steamer Western Ship left for upriver early yesterday morning with a full freight consisting of railroad iron and general merchandise and a good passenger list.

MR. A. B. ROBERTS, the explorer of Kicking Horse and other passes, is on board the Elder.

What Some People Say.

That an honest youth in this city was yesterday morning caught in the very act of making a counterfeit. It is feared he has been at the work so long as to become an expert. His plan consists in placing the tips of his fingers on the edge of the counter and vaulting from side to side.

That Mr. H. V. Edmunds, land agent, has laid out the editor's table a map of the town of Port Moody, the future metropolis of Burrard Inlet, drawn by Mr. Turner, land surveyor, New Westminster.

That the attention of the lands and works is called to a dangerous hole in a culvert on Cedar Hill road, near Mr. Irvine's farm. A bad accident has already occurred and another is probable at any moment.

That Mr. Alfred Weldhen has accepted a situation in the Hudson Bay establishment at Yale.

That all who know Mr. W. will wish him that success which his well known energy and business capacity entitle him to.

That the government cow is but a sorry beast. After four years' constant milking by the organ she has gone dry—drier than the dry dock.

That Victoria real estate is moving. Do you doubt it? Then look at the wind now at which the earth through the air and the convulsion.

That Angela college will reopen on the 13th inst.

That horse flesh is rising rapidly in price.

That good draught animals are worth their weight in gold.

That Henry Mansell's English goods have arrived.

That the government are acting in a shameful manner towards the drydock contractors and are evidently bent on starving them out.

That a more heartless course than that which the government have adopted in their dealings with these unfortunate men was never known except in the case of the cofferdam claimants. The chief commissioner seems to have started out with the deliberate object of ruining them all and inflicting a serious loss upon the entire community, besides delaying drydock construction.

That they have not been paid a dollar since November last.

That Mr. W. Norman Hole has lots for sale at the terminus.

That a company will apply to the legislature for a charter to construct a line of railway from New Westminster to the Boundary Line.

EASTER SUNDAY AT CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL.—There was a large attendance at the early celebration at eight o'clock as well as at noon. His Lordship the Bishop preached morning and evening to large congregations. The resurrection anthems of Elvey and Webb were sung morning and evening. Service was full of choral. The decorations were chaste and beautiful. On no former occasion has the church presented a more pleasing appearance. The design, admirably planned and energetically carried out, has a great credit upon the ladies of the congregation.

The service was of blue satin festooned with moss and pinecones. On either side was a white ground on which the text "The first fruits of them that slept," was conspicuous. Underneath were the monograms "Alpha and Omega" and over the whole was the text "Now is Christ risen from the dead." Above the altar was a floral cross of calla lilies, hyacinth and other flowers. On either side were placed vases of flowers. Over the vestry and organ loft were the texts, "The Lord is risen indeed," "My Lord and my God" with the word "Alleluia" suspended at the entrance to the chancel. The pulpit and font were artistically decorated with the choicest flowers that could be obtained.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—Laws and Wilkinson, two of the unfortunate sailors belonging to the ship Curtis, who lost their lives in the gale of Friday evening, were interred together yesterday afternoon in Ross Bay cemetery. The burial service was performed at Christ Church Cathedral by the Bishop of Columbia, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sheldrick. The captain and officers and all the seamen who could be safely saved from the ship attended the last rites of their unfortunate shipmates. The body of the young man Blundell was brought to town yesterday. His brother arrived last evening by the steamer Alexander to take charge of the ill-fated young man's remains and they will be interred at Nanaimo on the arrival of the steamer.

THE BOOM SAFELY ANCHORED.—Mr. Sayward's boom of logs from Comox arrived at Rock Bay bridge on Sunday morning in tow of the Pilot. The week was exceptionally rough and Capt. Caven had an anxious time of it getting down. On Friday night he was at anchor in front of Sidney Island spit with both anchors down, all the chain on board the vessel out and 40 lbs. steam to help them; notwithstanding his cables were in great danger of parting when the gale was at its height. Mr. Sayward has another boom ready at Comox.

TROUBLE ON BOARD THE MARY WICKHAM.—Telegrams were received yesterday by the American Consul and Surgeon O'Connor, stating that a serious difficulty had occurred on board the above barque now loading railroad ties for California at Sutton's mills, Cowichan. It seems that the crew is in a state of insubordination, and that a murder was threatened. Supt. Todd and Sergt. Bloomfield started for the scene of the disturbance at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by way of Saanich.

PROGRESS OF SETTLE.—The Post-Intelligencer supplies some interesting statistics of the progress of Seattle. It shows that lots which were sold for an old song a few years ago are now held at figures that run far into the thousands. Building is described as being active and a want of small houses for working people is mentioned. Victoria is also going ahead with marked rapidity; real estate is steadily advancing and building bids far to increase to a boom.

CAPTAIN JACK'S FUNERAL.—The funeral of this much respected citizen took place on Sunday from his late residence, James Bay, and the Presbyterian Church, Court-ney street. It was largely attended by his numerous friends and acquaintances both at the church and at the grave in Ross Bay Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Stephen conducted the services. The following were the pall-bearers: Messrs. R. Horton, Alex. Jack, J. Dorman, Wm. Dorman, W. A. Elliott, and D. F. Fee.

THE WESTERN SLOPE.—This steamer reached Riverside yesterday afternoon. She will return to Victoria this evening and leave Thursday morning for a through to Yale trip.

FRASER RIVER is rising fast.

Marine.

Mail steamer Idaho, with a full passenger list and 684 tons freight, sailed from Esquimalt at 11 o'clock yesterday morning for San Francisco.

H. B. Co.'s bark Prince Rupert was spoken in 55 S. 75 W., when 60 days out.

Barque Montana is loading at Newcastle Island with Fitzwilliam coal.

The destination of the old tub Wm. Taber has been changed; she will not run on the northern route, but is being fitted up for the Mexican coast, where the severe gales are infrequent and where she may contrive to hold together through a season or two.

Steamer Pilot will leave this morning for Hastings Mill to tow down the barque Katie Irving, lumber laden for Adelaide, South Australia.

Steamer Alexander came down from Nanaimo yesterday and will leave for Departure Bay this morning to bring down the barque Sierra Nevada for San Francisco.

The Elita White will be down to-day to tow the ship Silas Curtis to Moodyville.

The Police Court.—A d. and d. figured in the police court yesterday being the only misdemeanor reported by the force since Saturday.

The regatta committee met last evening and performed some routine work. A full programme will be published soon.

THE NIHILIST TRIALS.

THE PUBLIC EXECUTIONER PREPARING FOR BUSINESS.—AN EXPOSE OF FRAUD.

AN INVESTIGATION OF ABUSES UNDER THE RECENT REGIME.

LONDON, Feb. 26.

A St. Petersburg despatch says:—During Thursday's proceedings at the trial of the Nihilists, several prisoners made full statements. Suchanow drew such a vivid picture of the abnormal social conditions which had driven him, an honorable, sensitive man, to a career of crime, that even the judges were deeply affected. All the accused declared that they were Socialists, were willing to carry on a peaceful propaganda, but had been driven to illegal acts by the government's cruelties. It is believed that judgment will be delivered on Monday, and that fifteen of the prisoners will be condemned to death.

In the Nihilist trial, Lieut. Soukhanoff, explaining the motives which led him to join the Terrorists, said:—

"When I was in the navy I saw crying abuses and injustices on every side. I took the oath of fidelity to the Emperor, and I would have respected my oath if the commander of the vessel in which I served had not been a thief. I did not expose his depredations, and for that I was brought before a tribunal. There are many others in the marines still at liberty who—(Here Soukhanoff stopped suddenly). Continuing, he said, 'While I served with the Siberia squadron I met numbers of innocent exiles whose undeserved sufferings had reduced them to second childhood. My sister was transported to Siberia when a child and was prematurely delivered of a still-born child. Then at last the stifling moral atmosphere I had to breathe became unbearable to me. Go where I would both in the navy and in society, I found falsehood, wrong and tyranny in their foulest and most odious forms. They drove me at length to turn terrorist. I was a terrorist in the extreme sense of the word, caring little for shibboleths but would serve anyone, no matter whom, so long as he was a terrorist like myself. With the help of a skilled accomplice I prepared dynamite and explosive engines. I have voluntarily risked my life for the cause knowing that a little sooner or later I should be hanged.' Soukhanoff was brutally interrupted by the president saying:—'You should have all these fine phrases of yours printed.' The ill-timed coarseness of the sneer disgusted the audience. Issaief complained that the late prefect of police had put him to horrible torture by making him submit to be stared at six hours by all the porters in town in the hope that one of them would succeed in identifying him. The president stopped the prisoner at once, remarking that he was trifling. Terentief admitted that he had taken part heartily in the attempt on the Kherson treasury. Terentief regretted that the dynamite sunk under Peter's bridge was not turned to better account. Emilianoff tried to go back on his previous avowals, but the president confounded him by the declaration left by Rysakoff and Kibaltchik, who were executed. The president said:—'Emilianoff probably advised this attitude because all the witnesses who could have deposed to the facts against him have been executed. Kibaltchik, who formerly served in the third section of the police, said:—'In the bottom of my heart I am a revolutionary Socialist, and I despise the government I served. I saved a great many people from the gallows by giving them not merely advice, but the means of escape. Procurator Mouravief began his requisitory and spoke four hours. The female prisoners were defiant and indecent. The speeches of counsel for the defence were not remarkable, except Koroleff's, which the court interrupted twice to check its violence.

We all know what it is; we acquired a perfect knowledge of the 'Pet' in our youth, after a raid on the green apples we were expressly forbidden to touch. Our mother gave us Perry Davis' Pain-Killer then, and strange to say no other remedy has been discovered to this day to equal it.

EASTERN STATES.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 9.—A great fire is raging at Hamilton, Ohio. Three fire engines have been sent from here. A message just received says the fire started at 10.20 to-night in the city building on High street, close to the bridge over the great Miami. It has already consumed the city buildings and several livery stables and under a high wind has got beyond control. It is now, at 11.15 p. m., passing in the rear of the Presbyterian and Baptist Church and the county jail and postoffice. The greatest consternation prevails.

Later.—The Hamilton fire is under control.

McPHERSON, Kas., April 9.—The storm of Friday night blew down a stone house in Delmit township in this city in which Wisly Bregant and family resided. Mrs. Bregant and two children were buried in the ruins and died when taken out.

St. Louis, April 10.—A Mormon conference now being held at Independence is making vigorous war on polygamy and has unanimously adopted a resolution thanking the president and congress for passing the anti-polygamy bill.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—In the star route case a motion to quash was overruled and the indictment stands.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—A resolution was adopted at a meeting of the trades assembly calling for a general convention to be held in San Francisco on April 24th for the purpose of devising some plan to rid the community of the presence of Chinese.

A suitable call has been forwarded addressed to the people of the Pacific coast states and territories.

Woman Slavery.

(From Prof. Adler's Lecture in New York.)

Eighty-five per cent. of those who die from mercurial poisoning contracted in the looking-glass factories of Germany are women. In England, where factory legislation has been accomplished so much in the last forty years, an appalling state of things existed. In the "Black Country" the chain and nail making parts of England—the reports of the government inspectors told a terrible tale. In a row of chain shops women alone might be found at work, and their husbands might be seen loitering against the walls. It was a fact that men married "nailers" as they were called to live on their toil and drink up their earnings. The delicate girl of 21 wielded the heavy "oliver."

The reason women were employed was because more work could be got out of them than out of men. They were docile and submissive. They would obtain 8s for a week's work, and after paying the "baby tenders," the "friers" at the forge, and other expenses, would have 3s 6d left. In the agricultural districts women and children were worked in gangs. The gang-masters drove them from field to field, and far away from home, in boots and semi-nude attire. This, however, did not compare with the sights in the collieries, and far surpassing imagination were the spectacles in the collieries of Scotland. Women were compelled to work in mines filled with gas and flooded with water. The Bible said the life of man was three-score years and ten, but women working in the collieries seldom lived to be over 30 or 40. Little girls of 4 were taken into the collieries and at 6 carried loads on their backs. The black spittle carries the tollers off with terrible certainty. Poor Annie Hamilton worked unceasingly for 21 hours. Then she was given two hours to partake of her peasant and secure rest, after which she worked 12 hours. The women were nude to the waist, and wore a pair of loose trousers. About the waist was a belt to which a heavy chain was attached and dragged between their knees. They pulled with this chain loads of coal through long, low, damp passages, and were compelled to go on all fours like brutes. In this way they hauled loads 16,000 yards a day.

La Crosse, (Wis.), April 7.—Early this morning the boiler of the steamer Bellamie exploded, causing a terrible loss of life, a few miles below this city. The explosion completely wrecked the upper works of the steamer. The crew consisted of 17 men, including officers, 5 are missing. One is dead and three probably fatally injured, and the remainder are more or less hurt. The Bellamie was comparatively a new boat, and was considered perfectly safe. The second engineer says the boiler had plenty of water and 135 pounds of steam.

KALAMAZOO, (Mich.) April 8.—Additional particulars of the cyclone show that the devastation was greater than at first supposed. Houses were unroofed, and in a number of places were torn to pieces. One person had the timbers of his barn blown through his house. In another case the front of a house was torn off. Isaac Simmons' house was torn to pieces and he was fatally injured by falling timbers. A swath of 20 to 40 rods wide was mowed clear across the north end of the county.

Russia and Rousseau's Prediction.

The present political state of Russia recalls with peculiar force the prediction concerning that country made by Rousseau about 1775 and published in his well known work on the "Contrat Social."

"With nations as with men," he wrote, "there is a period of maturity that should not be anticipated. To do so is to impoverish results. The difficulty is that it is not always easy to determine that precise period in the life of a nation when the people can be brought to recognize and submit itself, in the interest of the commonwealth, to constitute laws. One nation at its birth is capable of being disciplined to a voluntary recognition of and submission to promulgated laws; another would not be so in a thousand years. The Russians will never thoroughly and truly become a law-abiding people. This is due to the errors committed by Peter the Great. The genius of Peter was but that of the imitator, not the true genius, which, with inferior means, still attains perfection—which out of nothing creates all. His edict was to the effect that from a barbarous people they should instantly become a civilized one, and from the moment he so desired it he insisted upon assuming that the transformation had been effected. He saw that his people was a barbarous one; he failed to comprehend that a period of educational transition was necessary before imposing upon it laws such as could only be understood and would only be recognized by a civilized people. He visited Germany, and returned so impressed with German civilization and procedure of government that he determined to make his people as the Germans were. He next visited England, and his residence in that country so modified his views in respect to Germany, that when he again returned to his own people, he set about making Englishmen of them. First Germans! then Englishmen! when he should have begun by making Russians of them. He perverted their proper genius and in this way, persuaded them that they were that which they were not, he prevented them from becoming that which they should and might have been. Ideas of inordinate vanity and ambition were implanted on a false and disintegrated basis, the consequence of which will be that Russia will one day want to subjugate Europe, but will, instead, be subjugated herself."

Death of a Once Famous Singer.

The Countess of Essex, who has just died in London, was Catherine Stephens, a once famous singer. The quality of her voice was fuller than that of any singer of her day, and but for her imperfect pronunciation of Italian she would have been engaged to replace the great Catalani. Personally she was one of those women who, without being regular beauties, are extremely fascinating, and her disposition was one of the sweetest. She had, of course, crowds of admirers, who laid their coronets and rent rolls at her feet. Finally, in 1838, she married a very old man, the childless Earl of Essex. He died the next year, leaving her an ample jointure. She made a large fortune during her professional career, which she distributed to her family. The salary paid her during her palmiest days will excite a smile among modern prime donnas. She got £12 a week at first, then £20, and left Covent Garden because the management would not give £10 (say $50) per night.

ANNUAL REPORT.
In making their Annual Report the Directors have to inform the Subscribers that the Government has built a Convalescent Home in the Hospital grounds, a part of the cost amounting to $451.65, was however paid by the Hospital Board. This building is now ready for occupancy, but cannot be made use of until provision is made for furnishing it.
The Directors have been specially careful to keep the Hospital Building in a thorough state of repair, but some additional outlay will be necessary during the current year for certain improvements and for beds, bedding, etc.
The Directors have to report that the affairs of the Hospital have been concluded with economy during the past year, and on this point refer the Subscribers to the Treasurer's Report.
The Report of the Medical Officer, which accompanies this, speaks for itself.
In closing this report the Directors have again to thank Messrs. Dunsmuir, Diggle & Co., and the Vancouver Coal Company for liberal donations of coal, and also the Local Government and Subscribers for generous support, and Mr. Russell for services in auditing accounts, and to express their satisfaction with the zeal and efficiency of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Robinson and the other officers of the Hospital.

J. H. TURNER, President.

ABRIDGED REPORT OF THE VISITING SURGEON.
To the Board of Directors of the Royal Hospital:—Gentlemen,—I have the honor to submit to you the following statement of the result of medical and surgical treatment of patients under my charge in Royal Hospital during the last twelve months. As will be seen there is a slight decrease in the number of in-patients admitted which is accounted for by the fact of several incurables having been admitted, who occupying beds, have excluded many who should have gained admittance had there been beds vacant, and in consequence of this fact the number of out-patients is in excess of ordinary years.

Number of patients admitted to Royal Hospital for the year 1881:—
In-Patients.....89
Out-Patients.....200
289

Of whom 14 have died from following causes:
Exhaustion.....3
Chest disease.....4
Kidney disease.....2
Fever.....1
Apoplexy.....1
Aneurism.....1
Cancer.....2

I cannot conclude this Report without testify to the admirable manner in which the affairs of the Hospital are conducted, which reflects the highest credit on the Superintendent, Mr. Robinson, and the Matron, Mrs. Robinson. I have also to thank such of the professional brethren as I have had to call upon, who have always most willingly rendered me my assistance I required. As also Mr. R. B. Thompson, dentist, who has frequently been of great service to me in cases where dentistry was required. I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
J. B. MATTHEWS.

When it is borne in mind that the foregoing figures represent the entire cost of carrying on the Hospital Establishment, including repairs, painting, etc., and that the average number of inmates was much higher during past year than ordinarily, whilst serious cases under treatment have involved unusual expense for extra nursing, it will be readily seen that the Hospital is carried on with careful economy.

Expenditure of the past five years compare as follows:
1877-78.....$5,665 80
1878-79.....5,062 37
1879-80.....5,482 39
1880-81.....5,401 24
1881-82.....5,636 27

These figures are irrespective of outlay for Convalescent Home, upon which was paid the following:—
In 1880-81—$970 paid for purchase of land adjoining Hospital; title vested in the Provincial Government.
In 1881-82—$451.65 paid to complete the contract price for construction of Convalescent Home building, the Government vote having been deficient by that amount.
Referring to the account for the past year the items for extra nurses, and wines and spirits, show the principal increase as compared with last year's expenditures, and this outlay was unavoidable in consequence of the character of the cases under treatment.

W. C. WARD, Hon. Treasurer.
